Projects:

[[Link]] Weather App (Using Android Studio Java)

Description:

I developed an Android weather application using the OpenWeatherMap API to provide real-time weather data, including temperature, humidity, wind speed, pressure, and sunrise/sunset times, all displayed on a single screen for easy access. The app features both city search functionality and automatic location-based updates. Built with Java, XML, and Android Studio, the project showcases skills in API integration, dynamic UI updates, location services, and Android development.

[Link]Wallpaper App (Using Android Studio Java)

Description:

I have developed a wallpaper app using Java and XML in Android Studio that allows users to search for a variety of wallpapers and set them directly on their home screen. The app utilizes the Pexels API to fetch high-quality wallpapers, offering users a wide range of options to personalize their device with ease.
